

The Final Threat

Not from the Business-Type saying "Goddammit you gotta pay your fuckin bills!"--a little of this goes a long way,

But...smart enough to lend an ear. Leave it there.

But from The Creative Destruction Gang?
Who'll ruin your grandma for theory!

(And their own merely lasts another day.)
Descended from that Namraqistan

Complex where your kid's blood spent for money with a seething chuckle.

In Ameriwar, one amuses
as a social duty.
